

RODRIGUEZ, OEHLER WIN IN DRAMATIC FASHION

Opening Event Does Not Disappoint, provides two epic final's

With the WTBA Beijing pattern playing more favorable on the Olympia Lanes surface, participants in both the boys and girls finals did not disappoint, providing fireworks that any fourth of July celebration would be proud of, keeping the 100+ fans in attendance on their toes. Highlighting the show were Carmel's Grant Oehler, and Kentwood MI's Macailin Rodriguez and their supporting cast, Lockport IL's Bailey Delrose, Griffith's Alecia Albanese, Livonia MI's Ryan Winters, and Chicago's Connell Kelleher.

In the girls final, the trio of talented youngsters battled into the 9th frame with a mere 3 pins separating the group. An open in the 9th by Delrose opened the door for her future Maryville University teammate Rodriguez who unnervingly stepped up in the tenth and punched out for a 242 thus eliminating Delrose who could only max out at 235, which she did. Standing in the way of the Michigan high school all stater's fourth NWIJTPA title was Ancilla sophomore Albanese who could strike out for 245. The NJCAA all american lefty struck on her first ball but could not find the pocket on her second, leaving her with a 231, and Rodriguez with her 4th career banner.

RODRIGUEZ

Other finalists in the 37 person girls field were veterans Nikki Mendez and Becky Lohse. The two Michiana Cup stars were competing in their final youth event and were looking to duplicate the efforts of last season's champion Annalee Sisk who won in her final attempt. Other scholarship recipients were Stephen F Austin State sophomore Sarah Voiers and Lindenwood standout Serenity Quintero. Marissa Metcalfe earned the U15 high qualifier award while Rodriguez earned her ticket to the 2019 Junior Gold national championships in Detroit.

OEHLER

On the gentleman's side, after three frames into the final, the majority of spectators had written off Carmel native and Davenport University sophomore Grant Oehler after consecutive opens that left him well back of both Winters and Kelleher who both opened up with three baggers. But, the high rev lefty decided to string the next 9 strikes together to run, no sprint, past Junior Team USA member and Wisconsin Whitewater standout Ryan Winters, and force Illinois State incoming freshman Kelleher to strike out in the tenth for the win. Like Albanese, Kelleher destroyed the rack in the 10th but strayed high into the 1-2 pocket, allowing for Oehler to complete one of the tour's most epic comebacks in its history 244-231.

Other finalists included Mount Mercy recruit Ian Ridgway and Lindenwood transfer Zachary Carter. Scholarships were also awarded to Alex Nolan, Chris Albanese, Cameron Crowe, Jakob Sisk, Manny Sanchez, Ethan Achten, Dakota Solonka, and Kyle Johnston. The U15 high qualifier award went to Danny Labonte. Oehler earned the U20 Boys Junior Gold spot while Kyle Pranger came away with the U15 boys Junior Gold national spot.

The 63 person boys field averaged 193.3 with a 207 required to advance to the semi finals. A staggering 220.1 was required to make the championship round. The girls field averaged 176.4 with a 190.4 needed to advance to the semi finals and 205 to reach the final round. Portage's Zachary Carter fired his second career 300 game during qualifying.

Special thanks to the Greater Calumet Bowling Association and Olympia Lanes for their great support. In total $3,500 was distributed in scholarships at the event with an additional $250 added to the year end fund.

The next event, Illinois Open, will be held on August 26th at Lynwood Bowl in Lynwood IL. This will be a limited size field. Interested players should look to secure their spot once the entry form is released.
