

RODRIGUEZ EARNS 6TH CAREER TITLE WITH CLUTCH 10TH FRAME

Youngsters Colon, Zuklin, Trexler all advance to Championship Round

The youngsters made it known that they were going to be a force to be reckoned with this season as three high school freshman (Isabella Colon, Carly Zuklin, and Kylee Trexler) all advanced to the championship round of the Illinois Open at Lynwood Bowl. But in the end, Macailin Rodriguez, the seasoned veteran, the NCAA collegiate standout, said not so fast kids, capturing her 6th career NWIJTPA title in dramatic fashion, striking out in the tenth to dispose of Colon 229-222. Colon earlier, stepped up in the tenth and delivered a key double of her own, forcing Rodriguez to reach into her bag of tricks. Rodriguez advanced to the finals with a convincing win over Zuklin while Colon took down Rodriguez's Maryville teammate and Greater Calumet Open Champion Bailey Delrose. The other two finalists on the ladies side were Trexler and Griffith High junior Morgan Schoon. Trexler led the girls initial qualifying block averaging 198.6 while Rodriguez led the field into the championship round 199.8

The ladies field of 19 averaged 167.0 with a 176.0 required to advance to round two. The required average to earn a spot in the championship round following the 8 games of qualifying was 173.6.

Rodriguez was awarded $275 with Colon increasing her SMART account by $200. Zuklin and Delrose collected $150. The lone junior gold spot was captured by St. Francis Brooklyn sophomore Heather Waters.

CLARK FLIPS SWITCH LATE, OVERTAKES ALBANESE FOR FIRST WIN

Newcomer denies Albanese first title in seesaw championship match

CLARK

Montgomery Illinois' Will "The Chill" Clark earned his first NWIJTPA title by cooling off a hot Chris Albanese in the title match which was closer than the final score of 232-185 indicated. Clark, the #2 seed, strung together five consecutive strikes to close the game while Albanese was on the bench. Albanese earned the top seed as a result of a 767 3-game advancers round set that vaulted him from the 6th spot to the top notch. Albanese then eliminated Alex Nolan (Mokena, IL) in the semi-finals 190-188 to set up the title match. Clark downed Brandon Caruso 212-198 to punch his ticket to the finals. Other advancers included Alex Acosta and Edward Burgos. The championship bracket was dominated by the Illinois contingent that competed with 5 of the 6 spots secured by Illini.

The field of 37 averaged 178.6 while an average of 191.2 was required to advance to round 2. The average required to advance to the championship round was 199.2

Clark was awarded $325 SMART dollars for his efforts while Albanese banked $250. Nolan and Caruso were credited with $175 each while Acosta and Burgos added $125 each to their accounts. Aiden Swinford captured the final cashing spot for $100 with his 7th place finish. Acosta was the high qualifier, earning a free entry into the next NWIJTPA event. Albanese punched his ticket to Las Vegas and the 2020 Junior Gold Championships.

Special thanks to Lynwood Bowl and Bob Carlson for their great support.

The next event, Greater Lafayette Open, will be held on September 22 at Mike Aulby's Arrowhead Bowl in Lafayette, IN. Interested players should look to secure their spot once the entry form is released.

The next D-Tour event is slated for September 29th at Hobart Lanes.
