

McCune, Carey Both Claim Career Title #8 at Illinois Open

McCune downs UWW standout Winters 177-159, Carey edges VU's Lohse 210-202

Munster's Kevin McCune claimed his 8th career NWIJTPA title with a grind-out 177-159 over Wisconsin Whitewater sophomore standout Ryan Winters in the title match of the 2017 Illinois Open hosted by Lynwood Bowl in Lynwood, IL. The title tilt started out with both players destroying the pocket but then a flurry of "ugly" splits from both players not only left the crowd in disbelief but also both competitors. A late double by McCune sealed the victory and restored some order to the stunning match.

Both players were fortunate to advance to the finals as both were pushed hard by Indianapolis' Nikolas Bowman and CCSJ freshman Jakob Sisk. Winters finished with a four bagger to secure his spot in the finals but McCune's fate was in Bowman's hands. Needing a strike in the 10th, Bowman's toss was nothing short of perfect, yet a stubborn 10pin remained, allowing McCune to advance 209-205. Other Championship round participants included Huntington's Avery Thurston, and Evergreen Park, IL's Shaun Quinn Jr. McCune increased his SMART account by $300 and also added an Apparel EFX champions jersey and banner to his winnings. Winters will deposit $225 while Sisk and Bowman will see their accounts increase by $150. Thurston and Quinn were awarded $125 each while Austin Schultz grabbed the final scholarship award of $80. The high qualifier free entry went to Jakob Sisk who led the 6-game qualifying block with a 1,298 before settling into the second position following the advancers round, behind top seeded Winters. Junior Gold spots were claimed by Quinn Jr and Thurston.

McCune

The 36 person boys field averaged 180.2 during the 6-game qualifier with an average of 192.5 required to move onto the advancers round. To advance to the championship round, players needed to average 200.5 for the 8 preliminary games. The pattern used was the WTBA 2017 Stockholm sport condition.

Carey

The girls championship match featured two northwest Indiana residents for the first time this season. Indiana Tech freshman and Hobart High graduate Maryssa Carey earned her 8th tour title in dramatic fashion over Valparaiso University sophomore and Chesterton High grad Becky Lohse 210-202. Carey, needing a strike in the tenth, following a closing double by Lohse, stepped up and like many times in the past delivered with a strike. Carey, like McCune, earned a champions jersey, champions banner, and $300 in scholarship while Lohse collected $225 for her SMART account. Falling short in the semi-finals were former Lockport (IL) High teammates Nikki Mendez and Bailey Delrose. Delrose was the top seed after both the 6 game qualifier and 2-game advancers round. Falling in the eliminator's first round were Kentwood MI's Macailin Rodriguez and Ancilla College freshman Alecia Albanese (Griffith, IN). Delrose and Mendez collected $150 each while Albanese and Rodriguez added $125. Another Ancilla College freshman, Megan Heflin (Lake Central) collected the final scholarship of $80.

Junior Gold spots were awarded to Carey and Lohse, while, Delrose captured the high qualifier free entry. The top U15 qualifier was Caleb Carey for the boys and Marissa Metcalfe for the girls, both earning $50.

The girls 34-player field averaged 160.7 for the six game qualifying block with an average of 166.7 required to advance to the second round. Following the two game advancer round, the 8-game average required to advance to the championship round was 183.9.

In total, $2,410 was awarded at the event in scholarship winnings while another $360 was placed into the year end pool. When including the Champions prizes and high qualifier awards, a 106% payback was achieved on the standard $40 member entry fee.

Special thanks to Ebonite International for their support of our tour. And a special thanks to Mr. Carlson and Lynwood Bowl for their outstanding service, support, and generosity towards our tour and youth bowling.

October 8th, the tour will be heading to LaPorte, IN and Casey's Lanes for the 2017 LaPorte Open.
