

NWIJTPA SURPASES 100 ENTRY MARK AT CRUSADER SHOWCASE

Hobart's Maryssa Carey edges Michigan's Kasey Eaton 202-201 for First Title
Dustin Zehner wins his 6th Title

---

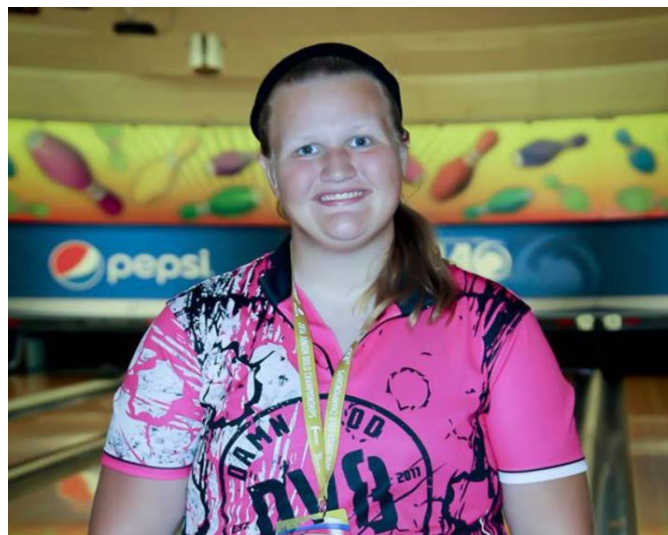

A new standard was set on the NWIJTPA tour when 46 boys and 55 girls came together to compete in the 2014 Crusader Showcase on November 8th at Inman's Rec Center in front of several NCAA coaches. This marks the first time in NWIJTPA history that both the 100 total and 50 girl entry mark have been surpassed.

Hobart's Maryssa Carey emerged from the 55-girl field representing four states with her first NWIJTPA title in dramatic fashion, edging four points leader Kasey Eaton of Grand Rapids MI 202-201. Eaton who entered the bracket finals as the #1 seed with her 1,185 qualifying block had an opportunity to secure the victory with a strike in the 11th frame but was unable to manage the extremely difficult NCAA short pattern one last time. Carey, #2 seed, advanced to the championship match with victories over Sarah Voiers (201-199), and Laura Levander (180-126), while Eaton dominated Paige Chapman (237-130) and fellow Michigan bowler Christina Schuerman (190-168). Other finalists included Alexandra Ross (Greenwood, IN), and Lafayette Indiana's Tabby Dawson ( a member of the reigning Indiana High School bowling Girls State Champions), The girls field averaged 159 on the very challenging conditions.

South Bend's Dustin Zehner added to his resume with his 6th career NWIJTPA title. Zehner's road to the finals was not an easy one. The #4 seed first faced Highland's Tyler Trombetta whom he dispensed by the score of 236-197. Zehner then downed top seed Kevin McCune (member of the 2014 Indiana High School Baseball State Champions) by the mark of 198-182. In the finals, Zehner jumped out early and held onto the momentum late, emerging with a 181-162 over Portage's Austin Trent. Trent defeated his brother Jordan in the first round, then ran past Lafayette's Jakob Sisk in the semi-finals before falling to Zehner in the title tilt. Other finalists included Highland's Adam Batliner and Chesterton two-hander Jacob Deweese. The boys managed to average 161 on the difficult NCAA womens short pattern.

Special thanks to our two presenting sponsors, Hall Insurance Services of Crown Point, and RAYJUS Bowling Apparel. We were able to award nearly $3,700 in scholarship points at this event, as well as two custom champion shirts from RAYJUS.

The next event is the popular Youth Adult doubles presented by DV8 bowling at Stardust Bowl III in Dyer on December 21st. And, shortly after will be the NWIJTPA Members Mid-Season Major at Hobart Lanes on December 27th and 28th. Entry forms will be posted on our website.
