

Winters Dominates Field - Captures First NWIJTPA Title

Michigan Standout defeats NWIJTPA Titles leader Zehner 366-326 in championship

Livonia, Michigan's Ryan Winters, bowling in his second NWIJTPA event, took control of qualifying at the Greater Lafayette Open by rolling a 243 during game 1, and never relinquished it as he secured the #1 seed heading into match play with a 6-game 1,240 total.

The Michigan righty then dispensed of Noblesville's Travis Holpuch in the quarterfinals 443-274 on the strength of an opening 248 game. Next to succumb to Winters was fellow Michigan product Sean Taylor (Davenport University, Hastings) 416-383, which set the stage for Winters to take on the NWIJTPA's most decorated male bowler, Purdue's Dustin Zehner. Zehner advanced to the title match defeating Munster powerhouse Kevin Mccune 376-354. The two-game total pin title match seesawed back and forth during game 1 with Winters emerging with a 12 pin advantage (182-170). Game two was all Winters as he pulled away in convincing fashion, dropping Zehner by the margin of 366-326.

Other qualifiers included Zach Carter, Kyle Snuffer, Sam Brandt, Austin Schultz, Jakob Sisk, Griffith freshman Christopher Albanese, and Jordan Shepherd.

The boys field of 31 players averaged 168.5 on the Kegel Red Square pattern.

Maddie Blythe Edges Elkhart's Schutz for First NWIJTPA Title

LC Sophomore capitalizes late in exciting finale

Maddie Blythe

The streak of first time winners on the NWIJTPA continued at the Greater Lafayette Open as St. John Indiana's Maddie Blythe garnered her first title with an exciting 390-382 win over Elkhart's Brooklynn Schutz at Landmark Lanes in Lafayette. The match came down to the tenth frame. Following a strike spare finish for Blythe, Schutz needed to convert the tricky 6-10 spare followed by 7 pins to earn her first title, but, on the difficult condition where no spare can be taken lightly, Schutz chopped the spare, allowing Blythe to secure her first title in a high scoring title match.

Blythe advanced to the finals with wins over Griffith sophomore Alecia Albanese, and Bluffton's Jaime Jaske. Jaske was recently honored as Indiana High School bowler of the week for her outstanding efforts the following week in high school play. Schutz defeated Highland's Lindsey Norton, top seeded Cristina Schuerman (Zeeland, MI) and Kouts' Erin Drang.

Other qualifiers included Greenwood's Alexandra Ross, Portage's Nicole Walton, Homer Glen Illinois product Nicolette Mendez, Noblesville's Emily Forkner, and Hobart's Maryssa Carey/

Special thanks to our sponser, Savage Bowling, and to Landmark Lanes. Without the support of these great partners we would not be able to return an unbelievable 100% of the entry fee as scholarships.

The next event is November 28-29, the members only Mid-Season Major at Hobart Lanes.
