

BANGHART - CAREY EDGE TOP SEEDS TO EARN MIXED DOUBLES TITLE

Banghart earns first Tour Title

The championship match of the 2019 NWIJTPA Mixed Doubles featured two players looking for their first title paired with the tour's leading title winner's. And, as expected, the match was filled with both intensity and nerves. In the best 2 of 3 baker final, the team of Kevin McCune and Brooklynn Schutz grabbed the early advantage with a 218-157 win in game 1. The tandem continued to look strong, atleast until Damian Banghart's strike in the ninth was followed up by three strikes in the tenth by partner Maryssa Carey and a stone-9 by McCune gave the #2 seeds the victory in game two 225-200. Intensity in game 3 was ratcheted up a notch as McCune and Carey traded strikes while Schutz and Banghart fought through some ball reaction challenges. But again, Banghart stepped up in the ninth and set his partner up in the tenth with a foundation frame explosion. Carey then sealed the deal with the first one in the tenth leading to a 210-184 game 3 win.

Banghart & Carey advanced to the championship match with a 2-0 (197-182, 202-198) win over Jalen Mosley and Brittney Kinney. Mosley earlier in the day tossed the NWIJTPA's 6th perfect game in tour history. Mosley and Kinney were the high qualifiers during the individual qualifying segment both earning free entries into their next NWIJTPA standard event. Mosley's 222.6 average topped a field of 33 boys while Kinney's 190.8 average was best among the 25 girls who challenged for one of ten mixed doubles spots.

Boys earning spots in the match play round, where they were teamed with the girl qualifying in the same standings position, were Mosley (1), Banghart (2), Myles Moser (3), Trevor Amir (4), Jacob Hubbs (5), Jordan Shepherd (6), McCune (7), Daniel Brown (8), Danial Labonte (9) and Matthew Labonte (10).

Girls earning spots in the match play round included Kinney (1), Carey (2), Megan Grams (3), Monica Colon (4), Sami Hatagan (5) Hannah Bond (6), Schutz (7), Isabel Sitkowski (8), Kaitlyn Yearsich (9), and Alyssa Foster (10).

Over $2,100 was awarded, with $500 going to the champions. Players had opportunities to win scholarships during the singles segment of the event as well as the top baker teams. A "last chance" high game award was also given out to the team with the highest game during round 10 of the baker mixed doubles round.

The boys field averaged 170.1 while the girls qualifying averaged 166.0. To advance to the mixed doubles round, an average 188.2 was required for the boys while a 174.6 earned a spot for the girls. During the baker mixed doubles round, the field averaged 182.9 with a team average of 190.8 (excluding bonus) required to earn a spot in the stepladder finals.
