

MATIASEK RUNS PAST GWYNN FOR FIRST NWIJTPA TITLE

Lockport Standout wins battle of Youngsters 338-328 in exciting two-game total pin final

U15 player Paige Matiasek decided to forego the Developmental Tour division and compete against the big kids and found out that she fits right in. The Lockport IL up and coming star rolled through qualifying with a 1,162, easily outdistancing Valparaiso University freshman Noelle Doody for top qualifying honors. The 8th-grader then rolled through the championship round unbeaten, defeating Carly Zuklin, Keagan Trexler, and again Zuklin before edging Gwynn in the title match.

Other finalists included Union KY's Ranelle Ulanday, Crown Point's Megan McGee, and Muskegon MI's Karli VanDuinen.

VETERAN ROSSI FINDS WINNERS CIRCLE FOR FIRST TIME

Defeats Evergreen Park's Pula in dominating fashion 476-388

Keaton Rossi has been competing on the NWIJTPA for 4 years and now he can call himself an NWIJTPA Champion. Rossi, the #3 seed after qualifying, faced off against top-seeded Connor Pula and promptly put together two of the best games of the event by any player to cruise past a stunned Pula 476-338. Rossi advanced to the title match with a win over Brandon Caruso, Trey Cripe, and then back to back wins over Terre Haute's David Hayes. Pula defeated Cayleb Carey, then Caruso, then he went back to back against Matthew Labonte in the double elimination advancers round. The other finalist was 14-year old Trevor Anifer.

DTOUR BOYS TITLE GOES TO BOONE GROVE'S TY KNIGHT

Knight takes down Channahon IL rising star Ethan Caruso in title match

Ty Knight qualified as the #3 seed then went on to defeat Curtis Sweezey (Franklin, OH), and then Caruso in back to back matches to roll thru the double elimination championship bracket unbeaten earning his first DTOUR title. Caruso defeated Gage Swinford following his first defeat to Knight to secure the rematch.

HARTZLER REBOUNDS TO WIN GIRLS DTOUR TITLE

Defeats Trexler twice to earn her first NWIJTPA banner

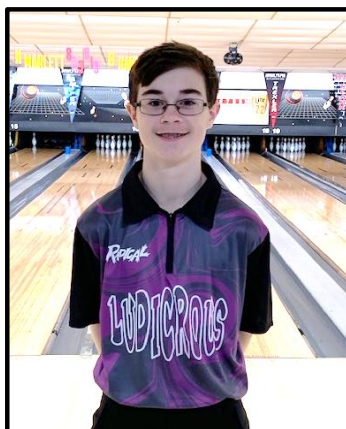

Brenna Hartzler of Smithville, OH, did not make it easy on herself, losing her first match in the double elimination bracket finals format to Kylee Trexler 194-172, but she bounced back with wins over Katrina Laskey, and top seed Diamond Gist (Hammond, IN) to garner a rematch with Trexler. Needing two wins, Hartzler grabbed the first game 191-152, then doubled in the tenth of the title game to secure a 183-173 win.
